AFTER MORE THAN 85 YEARS IN BUSINESS Zack's Fashions, a family operated, Ontario based fashion apparel store has commenced store closing sales in all their locations, with some locations closing very soon. For more than 85 years, Zack's Fashions has remained a family operated business, providing a shopping environment where fashion, value and service fit perfectly. Starting in 1921, the first Zack's Fashions opened in downtown Kitchener, Ontario. Today there are 28 stores across Ontario. Through three generations, Zack's has continued to work with Canadian manufacturers and importers to fill their stores with the latest styles, fabrics and colours. Customers have come to expect a wide selection of clothing, from everyday wear and career fashions to elegant evening wear. The store closing sale will be conducted by the Great American Group and is expected to last a few weeks.
Founded over 30 years ago, Great American Group has a successful track record in liquidating and downsizing major retail companies all across North America. Steven Smith, Vice President of Great American Group commented, "We are sad to see Zack's closing their stores, but consumers will benefit from the extreme discounts on every item in the stores until all the merchandise is sold". Great American Group provides liquidation services, auctions, wind-down services, appraisals, valuations and related services. The company's services focus on turning excess inventory into immediate cash through strategic retail store-closings and wholesale and industrial liquidations. Headquartered in Los Angeles, Great American Group also has offices in Chicago, Boston, New York, Atlanta and Philadelphia. For more information, please
